NAME OF PROGRAM: July Environmental Education Classes

LOCATION: Bur-Mil Park, Frank Sharpe Jr. Wildlife Education Center
5834 Bur-Mil Club Road, Greensboro, NC

DESCRIPTION:

Nature Photography, July 2, 6-7:30 pm

Open to all ages, Cost: $2

Come out and learn the “ins & outs” to take your photography from an afterthought to a great reason to get out in the woods. The basics of nature photography will be covered as well as more advanced techniques.

Snakes are Beautiful, July 18, 6-7:30 pm

Open to all ages, Cost: $2

Some snakes can be dangerous, but many of them are just plain beautiful. Some are even cuddly! This class dispels snake myths and prepares you to embrace our wonderful snake friends.

Wetland Ecology, July 26, 10 am-noon

Open to all ages, Cost: $2

Join special guests from the Haw River State Park as they show us how important and diverse the local wetlands are. Class includes “hands-on” exploring!

Birds of Summer, July 29, 6-7 pm

Open to all ages, Cost: $2

Discover the variety of birds in your neighborhood and the best ways to attract them for up close viewing and listening.
